Golden Nugget Las Vegas continues receiving 'Best Hotel-Casino' accolades

LAS VEGAS – The Golden Nugget Hotel and Casino continues receiving critical acclaim this year in gaming, hotel operations, entertainment, dining and customer satisfaction.

The legendary property located on the Fremont Street Experience has most recently been named America's Favorite Casino in Downtown Las Vegas by the readers of the 2008 edition of American Casino Guide.

This award follows the property's other 2008 accolades such as receiving the American Automobile Association's Four Diamond Award for its 31st consecutive year – still a Nevada record, being named the 2008 Best Downtown Hotel by the readers of the Las Vegas Review-Journal's 27th Annual "Best of Las Vegas Awards," and garnering recognition as the Best Overall Hotel Casino, Best Casino and Best Hotel, among 31 other downtown-region category awards, by Casino Player Magazine's "Best of Gaming 2008" issue.

“We are very proud to continue receiving such high accolades in customer satisfaction and hotel and casino operations,” said Justin McVay, Public Relations Manager for the Golden Nugget. “These awards continue to affirm the Golden Nugget’s commitment to our guests and to their Las Vegas experience.”

The Golden Nugget remains one of the premier hotel-casino resorts in Nevada, and consistently receives critical acclaim for exceeding customer expectations. This year alone, the downtown resort has received 37 awards for excellence in gaming, hotel operations, entertainment, dining and customer satisfaction. Only 14 hotel establishments in the United States have earned the AAA Four Diamond rating for 30 consecutive years or longer.
